ORDER:

In the memorandum first cited the Government directed that the temporary personnel in the Madras Fire Service should be treated as approved probationers for the purpose of granting leave to them under the Madras Leave Rules, 1933. A doubt has been raised whether the above concession takes effect from the date of the memorandum viz., 28th May, 1948 or from the date on which the officers concerned completed two years' duty after joining the Madras Fire Service even if this date is earlier than 28th May, 1948. The Government have considered the question afresh and direct that the temporary personnel in the Madras Fire Service should be treated as approved probationer from the date on which they completed two years duty after joining the Madras Fire Service for the purpose of grant of leave to them under the Madras Leave Rules, 1933.
